Our sights are set on helping you promote your vision of excellence in practice.

Your search for savings ends here.

Looking to lower the cost of office supplies? Staples Business Advantage is everything the name implies – a program that delivers every possible advantage to help businesses like yours.

- Lower costs
- Improve efficiency
- Gain more control over the purchasing process

Unbelievably low prices. With no surprises.

With the Washington D.C. Metropolitan Ophthalmological Society/ Staples Business Advantage partnership there's no need to waste time shopping because your savings are built into the special Contract pricing you get all year long – on the products you buy most. SBA means no more hunting for bargains because it's already yours!

Staples provides you with a full range of products and services, starting with the Staples "Unbelievable." Catalog. This catalog contains thousands of low-priced items!

Dedicated Inside Account Management

As part of the WDCMOS' partnership with Staples Business Advantage, you have a dedicated Account Manager, Michael Scarpignato, who works to ensure your entire procurement process is easy, efficient, and cost-effective. Your account manager will alert you when new savings opportunities arise that are perfect for your business, and will proactively check in with you each month. Contact Michael at 1.800.950.1257, ext. 3437, or via email at Michael.Scarpignato@Staples.com.

Customer Service

SBA's Customer Service team is dedicated to servicing our customers and was awarded the J.D. Power and Associates Award for Customer Service Excellence two years in a row. They can help you place orders, answer questions regarding order status, delivery information, stock check, product information, and returns.
